End of Sale

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Purchasers must bid by number and register before bidding. Persons unknown must provide identification either driving licence or passport, together with a copy of current utility bill. Bidders must inform the Auctioneers if they are bidding for a third party.

2. A BUYERS PREMIUM OF 20% plus vat will be charged on the hammer price (24%).

3. All persons attending the sale do so at their own risk and neither the Auctioneers, nor the vendors shall be responsible for any loss, accident, and injury to persons or property, howsoever caused.

4. In as much as the Auctioneers act as agents for a disclosed principal they shall not be considered personally responsible for any default on the part of the Purchaser or Vendor and the remedy shall be against them only and not against the Auctioneers.

5. PAYMENT becomes due on the fall of the hammer. The following methods of payment will facilitate the immediate release of purchases:

• a. BANK TRANSFER: BACS inter bank transfer is our preferred method of payment.

Lloyds Bank TSB, Old Town Swindon, Wiltshire
Sort Code: 30 98 41 Account No. 04910916
IBAN No. GB 09 LOYD 3098 4104 8871 32
BIC LOYDGB21106

Purchasers will be responsible for all bank charges for international payments, and are required to use their registered bidding name in the bank reference.

• b. DEBIT CARD: IN PERSON only (not on the phone)

• c. CASH: Following the introduction of new regulations in June 2017, we are required to conduct identification checks where customers wish to pay in cash for purchases of 10,000 Euros or more. Please telephone the office for more details or see our website.

We cannot now accept payment by Cheque or Credit card.

LATE PAYMENT CHARGES – A £20 HANDLING FEE WILL BE ADDED TO ALL INVOICES, IF PAYMENT HAS NOT BEEN RECEIVED WITHIN 5 WORKING DAYS OF THE SALE.

6. Buyers shall at their own risk and expense take away any lots that they have purchased and paid for not later than 2 working days following the day of the auction, after which they shall be responsible for any removal, storage and insurance charges.

7. No items will be removed without an Auctioneers receipt which will be checked on exit. Please make arrangements with the Auctioneers if you cannot collect goods purchased prior to 5pm on the Friday following the sale. Goods remaining on the premises are entirely at the risk of the purchaser, and if not collected within 5 WORKING DAYS will be subject to a storage charge. We offer by consultation free storage for 1 week, then items are moved to a warehouse and storage is £10 per day. 3 months maximum. Goods will then be given to charity.

8. Whilst goods are the responsibility of the purchaser on the fall of the hammer, title does not pass and is reserved by the vendor until the auctioneers have received payment either in cash or cleared funds.

9. DESCRIPTIONS & CONDITION.

Kidson-Trigg Condition Reports are carried out by Kidson-Trigg Staff, who are not trained conservators, nor restorers, and will only examine items from their naked eye. Buyers are advised to seek independent expert advice. Condition Reports with Estimates of £100+ will be given priority, and due to the volume of requests each sale, we cannot guarantee that we can answer all requests. Whilst we seek to describe lots accurately, it may be impractical for us to carry out exhaustive due diligence on each lot. Prospective buyers are given ample opportunities to view and inspect before any sale and they (and any independent experts on their behalf) must satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of any description applied to a lot. Prospective buyers also bid on the understanding that, inevitably, representations or statements by us as to authorship, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price involve matters of opinion. We undertake that any such opinion shall be honestly and reasonably held and accept liability for opinions given negligently or fraudulently, subject to the foregoing neither we the auctioneer nor our employees or agents not the seller accept liability for the correctness of such opinions and all conditions and warranties, whether relating to description, condition or quality of lots, express, implied or statutory, are hereby excluded.

10. Purchasers are deemed to have satisfied themselves by inspection prior to the sale as to the quality, condition and description of each lot which is sold with all faults and imperfections as seen. Purchasers should be aware that the Auctioneers do not normally state any damage or restoration because such implies that all other items are perfect. Notwithstanding this condition, if a Purchaser claims any items to be a deliberate forgery or other such reason, any claim must be made within 5 days of the Sale, after which time the Auctioneers will not entertain any claim. Any claim must be submitted together with 2 letters from recognised independent experts.

11. The bidding is to be regulated by the Auctioneer, the highest bidder shall be the purchaser. If any dispute should arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute will be immediately put up again and resold. The Auctioneer will settle any dispute, of whatever nature either during or after the sale, whose decision will be final and binding upon all parties.

12. Where items are subject to a reserve price, the auctioneer reserves the right to bid on behalf of the vendor up to the reserve price and in such cases the vendor may not also bid.

13. REMEDIES FOR NON PAYMENT or failure to collect purchases If any lot is not paid for in full and taken away in accordance with these Conditions, or if there is any other breach of these Conditions, Kidson-Trigg as an agent for the seller shall at its absolute discretion and without prejudice to any other rights it may have, be entitled to exercise all of any of the following rights and remedies:

to proceed against the buyer for damages for breach of contract;

to rescind the sale of that lot and/or any other lots sold by Kidson-Trigg to the defaulting buyer;

to re sell the lot (by auction or private treaty) in which case the defaulting buyer shall be responsible for any resulting deficiency in the total amount due (after crediting any part payment and adding any resale costs). Any surplus so arising shall belong to the seller;

to remove, store and insure the lot at the expense of the defaulting buyer and, in the case of storage, either at Kidson-Trigg premises or elsewhere;

to retain that or any other lot sold to the defaulting buyer until that buyer pays the total amount due;

- to reject or ignore bids from the defaulting buyer at future auctions or to impose conditions before any such bids shall be accepted;
- to apply any proceeds of sale of other lots due or in future becoming due to the defaulting buyer towards the settlement of the total amount due and to exercise a lien on any of the buyer's property in Kidson-Trigg possession for any purposes.

14. RELEASE OF GOODS.

Goods will not be released until full cleared payment has been received. Goods will only be handed over on sight of a paid invoice. If a paid invoice is not produced, written authority from the purchaser and conformation of all funds cleared for payment of the accounts, will be required before release. When goods are collected by a non recognised courier, photo identification will be required a copy of which will be taken along with a note of the registration of the vehicle used. Saleroom porters are available on sale day and the day after to assist purchasers with the removal of goods up to a maximum of 25 kilos in weight.

15. The entire sale is conducted under the auctioneers margin scheme where VAT on the buyers premium is not reclaimable.

16. Online Bidding.

Kidson-Trigg Auctions offer an online bidding service via www.easyliveauction.com & www.the-saleroom.com for bidders who cannot attend the sale.

Please note that any lots purchased via easylive.com will be subject to 3% + VAT or £3 flat fee per auction.

Please note that any lots purchased via the-saleroom.com live auction service will be subject to an additional 4.95% commission charge + VAT at the rate imposed on the hammer price.
